

Open Donor: Ballard

Staff Impression

Ballard has a very sweet face, with light-brown hair and green eyes. Standing six-feet tall with fair skin and symmetrical facial features, Ballard makes for a good-looking donor. He is lean, as he weaves physical activity through his everyday life, with running being his favorite way to maintain his health.

Intelligent, calm, and self-motivated, Ballard finds success in almost everything he sets his mind to accomplish. He has a thirst for knowledge and wants to one day travel the world. He is shy at first but quickly warms up and exudes a quiet charm. When asked why he wants to be a donor, Ballard answered, "I think being a donor is a good way to help others create families when circumstances prevent them from having their own otherwise."
