

Staff Impression – Eli

Eli is a happy, outgoing guy. His charming smile, and strong jaw line pairs well with his thick wavy blonde hair. Eli has a slim, athletic frame that he keeps in shape by skiing and playing soccer. His green eyes smile when he speaks about his family and his love of the arts. He plays trumpet, piano, and is a DJ in his spare time.

Eli's positive outlook on life makes him a joy to talk to and a beautiful soul. That attitude has helped him achieve many of his academic and life goals. Eli is an attractive, smart, easy going man and he makes a great donor for our program.
