

Zhang Staff Impression

Zhang is an adorable donor with a diamond-shaped face, square jawline, high cheekbones, tan skin, and a clear complexion. He typically has a cheerful expression whether it be a subtle grin or broad, inviting, smile. He is fit and lean with good muscle tone from living an active, athletic lifestyle.

Zhang is one of our most approachable donors with an exceptionally outgoing and enthusiastic personality. He is intelligent and charismatic with a sharp wit which allow him to thrive in both casual and formal social settings. Zhang is an exceptional student who makes the most out of college life getting involved with various student organizations and attending football games. Zhang was on his high school's wrestling and swim teams, and has discovered a new favorite activity with his university's rock climbing team. Outside of school, Zhang enjoys traveling through Europe and Asia, playing piano and Harmonica, and cooking traditional Chinese dishes with his family.
