

Staff Impression: Qiang

Qiang is in fantastic shape, and very good looking. He has plush black hair, smooth skin, full lips, and an attractive jaw line. He has soft, kind eyes and an inviting smile with straight white teeth. Qiang is quite the athlete and outdoorsman. He loves hiking, camping, mountain biking, snowboarding, and skiing. Qiang says he loves all outdoor activities, and when he can't make it outside, you can find him working out at the gym.

Qiang spoke both English and Cantonese while growing up and is fluent in both. Qiang is currently a Biology student with goals of becoming a pediatrician, to help underprivileged children in foreign countries. He is a very sweet, positive, protective, and caring young man. Aside from outdoor activities and sports, one of his favorite hobbies is reading. All these characteristics make Qiang a well-rounded individual and a great donor!
