

Flannel Staff Impression

Flannel is average height with a medium build. His fair complexion highlights his red wavy hair and red full beard. He has round green eyes, full pink lips, and a roman nose. Flannel has a warm, quiet but respectful and friendly personality.

Flannel is studying Public Administration. He is also a teacher and teaches Theatre to children from kindergarten to fifth grade and teens to adults. He has been acting since he was twelve years old and started writing and directing in college. Flannel and his wife are foster parents and are happy to foster children who need that support and in addition contribute to other families starting a family by being a part of our donor program.
