Wolfgang (14151) Staff Impression

Wolfgang is a handsome donor with tan skin, dark hair, brown eyes, and a heart-shaped face. He has tidy, arched brows, deep-set eyes, a medium-sized nose with a high bridge and narrow tip, and a relaxed smile. He is lean and noticeable athletic— a result of his healthy, active lifestyle.

Wolfgang is an intelligent, upbeat, and charming man of action who works hard and plays hard. He is a great balance of both outgoing and introspective. He currently works in marketing and spends his free time producing music, snowboarding, surfing, skating, and participating in just about any action sport that comes his way. His parents instilled in him the values of dreaming big, working hard, staying grounded, and being loyal to loved ones. He has a close relationship with his parents and two brothers. Though they are spread out across the country, they make time for weekly video chats. Wolfgang is excited to have children and a family of his own someday and is enthusiastic about being able to help others do the same.
