

Aria 10545 Staff Impression

Aria is a father of two and a goal-oriented, successful, nurturing, and kind person! He is handsome, with soft, brown eyes and an endearing smile that matches his uplifting personality. Aria currently works in law enforcement but has big dreams to pursue law school and a career as a public defender. We are always impressed when donors are multi-lingual, however, we are particularly impressed that Aria is fluent in English and Persian as well as speaking conversational Spanish.

In his spare time, Aria enjoys many outdoor activities and travel, especially visiting national parks. He also enjoys cycling, jogging, and swimming. In addition to working and living an active lifestyle, Aria is multifaceted and enjoys playing music including piano, and most recently, guitar-- he hopes to spend more time practicing both in the future. Overall, Aria is outgoing and social but can be reserved. Aria would be a fantastic donor to any family, and we are thankful to have him in our program!
