

Staff Impression Alomar 14459

Alomar 14459 is energetic, optimistic, and a great conversationalist! He is tall and muscular, regularly weightlifting and running. His face is square, with an angular jaw and distinct blue green eyes. His kind and friendly attitude is telling of how Alomar approaches his life. He values his family greatly, spending time with them traveling, hiking, and rock-climbing. He attributes his approach to life and relationships to the strong bonds he has with them.

Alomar 14459 enjoys his alone time as well, reading sci-fi, watching mystery movies, and wood carving. His time is spent in the kitchen as well, cooking home made pasta. Alomar's positive attitude and kindness permeates his hobbies, personal relationships, teaching, and becoming a donor. Alomar's thoughtfulness and kind heart is what drew him to become a donor and we are so grateful it did!
