

Garrison 10869 Staff Impression

Garrison is a tall man at 6 feet, with a square head shape that gives him a sharp look. His dark brown hair is always perfectly styled, not a strand out of place, accentuating his distinct widow's peak. His nose is straight and pointed, giving his face a refined air, while his hazel eyes—downturned yet bright—hold a quiet intensity that catches attention. Garrison always sports a playful, unique earring, often a quirky accessory that adds an element of surprise to his otherwise reserved, polished appearance. His smile is subtle and controlled, but when it shows, it hints at his lighthearted side.

Garrison is a behavioral health tech with a passion for helping people, currently studying to become a psychiatrist. As an only child, he's used to carving out his own path and keeping busy with hobbies that showcase his quirky, hands-on nature. When he's not hitting the books, you'll likely find him on the golf course perfecting his swing or under the hood of his beloved project car, working on it with laser focus. Though he doesn't have much of a sweet tooth, he's a self-proclaimed chicken connoisseur—if it's got chicken in it, he's all in! When he's not golfing or wrenching on his car, you might catch him bowling with friends, always adding some playful competition to his downtime. Garrison's a laid-back guy with a sharp wit, balancing fun and focus with ease.
