

Lukyan 16037 Staff Impression

Lukyan has a joyful, sweet smile that instantly lights up a room. His short, straight brown hair and kind brown eyes give him a warm and approachable vibe. With a strong square jaw, he carries a confident yet friendly presence. Always upbeat and playful, he's someone who brings positive energy wherever he goes.

Lukyan is a research scientist dedicated to reducing food waste and making a positive impact. Fluent in both English and Russian, he's also mastering the art of salsa dancing in his free time. With a 3rd-degree blackbelt in Taekwondo, he's got some serious moves both in and out of the studio! He is a big fan of Thai food. He can also play the piano and read music, adding creativity to his already impressive skill set. Playful and multi-talented, Lukyan loves to keep things interesting.
