Braulio stands at 5'8" with a medium, balanced build. His glowing skin catches the light, adding to his naturally radiant look. His dark brown hair is thick, short, and neatly styled, perfectly complementing his high cheekbones. His oval, deep brown eyes have an intense yet warm gaze, while his short, well-kept beard adds a touch of sophistication. And then there's his killer smile—effortless, bright, and magnetic, making it impossible not to be drawn in by his charm.

Braulio is a bundle of positivity and energy, always approaching life with his bright smile and an unshakable work ethic. Currently juggling the intense world of medical school, he handles the pressure with ease, finding balance through his love for sports and music. With over 10 years of piano-playing experience, Braulio is equally at home on the court as he is behind the keys, playing volleyball or pickleball with the same dedication he puts into his studies. Sundays are sacred for him, reserved for all things football, where he immerses himself in the game and lets his enthusiasm shine. He's the type who'll eat anything and everything, proving he's not just adaptable in his schedule, but in his appetite too! A true go-getter, Braulio's energy is infectious, and his positive attitude keeps everyone around him motivated.
