

Briggs 13113 Staff Impression

Briggs is a striking 6 feet tall, with a lean, athletic build that shows his strength. His shoulder-length black hair falls in easy waves, often pushed back but sometimes slipping forward to frame his face. Warm brown eyes with double lids give him a thoughtful gaze. When he smiles—bright and full of life—dimples deepen in his cheeks, bringing out his warm, magnetic charm. His presence is both laid-back and lively, the kind of energy that draws people in and keeps them curious.

Briggs is a confident, full-time student diving into the world of geographic data sciences. Known for his genuine kindness and knack for brightening up strangers' days, he's the type of person who's always got a smile and a helping hand ready. Recently, Briggs has taken up boxing and, though still learning the ropes, he's already enjoying the thrill. Despite being lactose intolerant, his one true culinary love remains mac and cheese—a delicious risk he just can't resist. In his downtime, he's often sketching, letting his creativity flow through art. Friendly, fearless, and full of surprises, that's Briggs for you!
