Renan has a presence that's both striking and approachable. At 5'10" with a solid, athletic build, he carries himself with quiet confidence and a sense of ease. His clean-shaven head gives him a bold, modern look that complements his masculine face with a strong jawline and well-balanced facial features. Warm brown eyes and a wide, genuine smile give him an inviting, down-to-earth charm, while his well-groomed beard adds just the right touch of ruggedness. He is classically handsome with lead actor good looks. Renan has a polished style that reflects the care he puts into his health and presentation.

Beyond his appearance, Renan is thoughtful and driven with a rich blend of life experience, resilience, and curiosity. With a background in finance and law enforcement, he brings a unique mix of strategic thinking, discipline, and a strong moral compass to everything he does. Raised on a cattle ranch, he developed a deep appreciation for self-sufficiency, hard work, and the outdoors, skills he still uses today in his hobbies like fly-fishing, off-roading, and backpacking.

He's also a creative soul, with a growing passion for painting and woodworking, and a love for music that began with the accordion and trumpet and continues with the guitar. Friends describe him as stoic, loyal, and the one you want around in a crisis, someone who leads with integrity and always keeps his cool. Renan chose to become a donor after learning about the challenges others face in building families. With his strong health and genuine desire to help, he sees donation as a meaningful way to make a lasting difference.
